An elegant and extremely unique French 19th Century Louis XVI st. six leg, three tiered giltwood, caned and marble oblong center/side table. The table is raised by six circular tapered fluted legs with carved fitted chandelles and topie shaped feet. At the center are two caned tiers with a mottled border and fine block rosettes at each leg. The intricately pierced apron displays richly carved foliate movements and block rosettes below a mottled border with a carved tied design framing the original oval Brèche marble top. All canning intact and all Original Gilt throughout.
