A handsome and high quality French 19th century Louis XV st. Tulipwood, Kingwood, Ormolu, and Breccia Violette marble side table, in the manner of Maison Krieger, Paris. This stunning table is raised by four square slender tapered legs with Tulipwood and Kingwood inlays, and Ormolu accents such as side bands, sabots, and top caps of foliate and laurel designs. All apron displays arbalest movements and are decorated with Ormolu bands with a central reserve containing scrolling foliate designs and inlays above. The round top showcases a fitted Breccia Violette marble wrapped in a fine mottled edge Ormolu gallery with slightly protruding corners above each of the four legs.
