An exquisite and most elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. Walnut, ormolu and Alabastro marble center table. The circular center table is raised by impressive cabriole legs with beautiful scrolled acanthus leaf feet with fitted berried laurel ormolu chutes leading up to superb richly carved foliate and large acanthus leaf designs. Each leg is connected by a remarkable curvaceous X shaped stretcher with an exceptional richly carved central rosette with fine fitted foliate ormolu chandelles. The arbalest shaped frieze is centered by striking intricately carved acanthus leaves and scrolled foliate designs with a smooth cabochon reserve flanked by most decorative carved lattice designs framed within a most elegant ormolu band. Above is the fitter Alabastro marble top framed within a Walnut border with a beautiful reeded les oves designed wrap around ormolu gallery.
