A beautiful and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Baccarat crystal and ormolu centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by a circular base with lovely stepped mottled ormolu bands with Coeur de Rai, mottled, and beaded designs. Three tapered supports with hoof feet center a mottled floral reserve and lead upwards to richly chased masks amidst berried laurel wreaths and charming blooming flower garlands below lovely intricately detailed wrap around beaded and floral bands. The striking Baccarat crystal bowl displays a unique and extremely decorative curved shape with reeded and etched floral designs, and a remarkable wrap around beaded ormolu band and exceptional richly chased berried laurel garlands tied with ribbons all in a superb satin and burnished finish.
