A lovely and very elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Baccarat crystal and ormolu three light chandelier. Centered at the bottom is an inverted ormolu acorn finial supporting a large crystal sphere with rosettes and smaller spheres. Joining to the arms are ormolu rope designs accented with crystal pendants. The three arms have scrolled foliate designs ending in foliate bobeches all adorned with crystal pendants. The tapered fluted ormolu central fut has foliate chasing with twisted rope and wreath borders and two levels of ormolu sprays with crystal pendants. All below the top crown decorated with large scrolled acanthus leaves with kite shaped crystal pendants.
