A highly detailed and large scale French 19th century Louis XVI st. Baccarat Crystal chandelier. This magnificent thirty arm thirty light chandelier is centered by a topie shaped Crystal finial below a Crystal draped palmette designed reserve with baguette pendants hanging around the edge. Above is a large Crystal bowl with a seashell rim which produces a beautiful wavy chatoyant shimmer. Each of the two levels of 'S' scrolled spiraling Crystal arms are decorated with wonderful Crystal lily pad bobeches with baguette pendants hanging below. Above each bobèche are the Crystal candle cups which have finely detailed seashells along the rim. Surrounding the mottled Crystal central fut, are charming swaging Crystal garlands leading up to a Crystal tier decorated with intricate rosette cuts. Above the tier is the wonderful top crown in the shape of a seashell edged Crystal bowl with Crystal baguette pendants hanging below.
