A beautiful and finely detailed French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period Baccarat crystal and ormolu centerpiece bowl. The centerpiece is raised by a stunning pierced scrolled Rocaille designed base with richly chased foliate movements in a fine satin and burnished finish. Three charming and finely detailed cherubs draped in elegant fabrics are holding both of their hands above their head supporting an intricately detailed grape leaf and grape cluster designed wrap around band supporting the Baccarat crystal bowl above. The beautiful bowl displays an exceptional and most decorative array of etched floral designs with a fluted band at the rim. All original gilt throughout.
