An exceptional French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period Baccarat crystal and ormolu centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by handsome ormolu paw feet below rectangular tapered legs decorated with elegant overlapping patterns and connected by intricately detailed swaging grape leaves and grapes. A fine berried laurel band wraps around the centerpiece while the thick Baccarat crystal bowl displays a most decorative scalloped shaped border and fluted designs. The bowl is encased by four richly chased roaring lions heads amidst beautiful floral movements and tied by a ribbon.
