A stunning and most unique French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period Baccarat crystal and ormolu chandelier. The fifteen arm chandelier is centered by a charming bottom finial of a tassel amidst acanthus leaves with three twisted rope designed elements leading up to the arms above. At the center is the exquisite and most decorative Baccarat crystal body with beautiful cut diamond designs from which three sets of three arms branch out each displaying fine Rinceaux shaped scrolls and mottled candle cups. Above are six additional arms with the same elegant designs centered by three supports leading upwards to the beautiful top crown where they are secured in the mouths of handsome lions centering an inverted acorn final amidst reeded and acanthus leaf designs.
