A stunning and very high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period cobalt blue Sèvres porcelain and ormolu lidded urn signed Sèvres. The urn is raised by a circular ormolu base with fine block and fluted feet. The elegant socle shaped pedestal support displays a richly chased wrap around berried laurel ormolu band and lovely hand painted floral gilt accents.

The beautiful cobalt blue porcelain body displays intricately detailed handsome bacchanalian bearded men with grapes and leaves in their hair connected by stunning blooming flower swaging garlands and an interlocking berried laurel branch. The curved neck displays an exceptional majestic gilt crest with a royal crown above the coat of arms from the House of Bourbon and lovely berried laurel garlands. The top rim displays a beautiful wrap around foliate band while the removable lid displays a charming gilt floral band and impressive finely detailed berried foliate finial in a rich satin and burnished finish.
