A stunning and extremely high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period mahogany, ormolu and Rouge Royale marble center table/desk, signed François Linke. The desk is raised by elegant square tapered legs with beautiful fitted foliate ormolu sabots, richly chased berried laurel branches tied with a ribbon and fine beaded fillets at each corner leading up to mottled foliate top caps. Above each leg are striking rosettes flanking the straight apron. The apron is decorated with sensational intricately detailed pierced fitted ormolu plaques with luxuriant scrolled Rinceau shaped designs and one central drawer with a beautiful mask of a maiden flanked by cornucopias and rams heads. The back and sides are decorated in a similar manner. Above is the original Rouge Royal marble top with a fine cut border fitted within a wonderful foliate wrap around ormolu gallery.
