A stunning and very unique French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Epoque period Mahogany, Tulipwood, marble, and ormolu pedestal. The pedestal is raised by an elegant bottom tier with concave sides, a fine mottled border, and a beautiful parquetry à la Reine pattern. Striking scrolled supports adorned with ormolu acanthus leaves and berried laurel mounts lead upwards centering the impressive tapered inverted fluted finial with a superb ormolu acorn finial. Above each support is a fine rosette flanking additional beautiful parquetry designs at the frieze. The elegantly curved top lip leads to the original marble top fitted within a fine ormolu border.
