A spectacular French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period ormolu and Gris St. Anne marble side table. The circular table is raised by a beautiful Gris St. Anne marble base with three fluted and reeded topie shaped ormolu feet below block reserves with striking sunflower rosettes flanked by pierced fitted ormolu plaques below beaded bands. Three impressive scrolled fluted supports lead upwards adorned with acanthus leaves and intricately detailed swaging floral garlands and rosettes. At the center is a beautiful urn shaped support with a most decorative wrap around band with elegant interlocking designs and additional richly chased swaging floral garlands. Above are charming ormolu sprays with Rinceaux designs and fine rosettes ending in acorn finials all below the original Gris St. Anne fitted marble top framed within an elegant pierced ormolu gallery with a wrap around berried laurel branch design.
