A stunning and extremely high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st.

Belle Époque period ormolu and patinated bronze centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by an elegant pierced oblong base with striking Rocaille designs, beautiful scrolled foliate movements, and etched floral designs. At the center are two charming richly chased cherubs draped in lovely flowing ribbons with their hair tied by a band seemingly holding up the bowl above.

The bowl above displays a reeded base and an exceptional pierced lattice design with graceful blooming flowers and an impressive central cabochon with the letter R flanked by impressive finely detailed acanthus leaves tied with a ribbon. The top rim displays a most decorative scalloped movement with a reeded band and scrolled handles centering the removable patinated bronze bowl secured in place by a charming ormolu floral rosette.
