An exceptional and very high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period ormolu and Rouge Griotte marble statue. The statue of a man teaching a boy to correctly use his bow is raised by a fine triangular Rouge Griotte marble base with cut corners and lovely concave sides. Above is a handsome bearded man indicating to the boy where to place his hands to correctly let go of the arrow as well as the appropriate height of the bow. Both are wearing sandals, a leaf and display exceptional attention to detail.
