A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period ormolu chandelier. The six arm chandelier is centered by a beautiful acorn finial below the circular spiral fluted central fut. The six arms display charming wonderfully executed branch like designs adorned with richly chased leaves and superb most decorative blooming flower candle cups. The central fut displays a quiver design with additional finely detailed vine branches with leaves and richly chased flowers growing upward towards the pieced circular fluted top crown.
