A striking and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period ormolu clock signed by Raingo Frères. The clock is raised by lovely mottled feet with a floral design. Below the clock face is a stunning and richly chased acanthus leaf and panier of flowers in a wonderful satin and burnished finish. Scrolled elements adorned with lovely acanthus leaves lead up each side to the white enamel clock face. The clock face displays fine pieced ormolu hands, Roman and Arabic numerals with the signature at the center all framed within a beaded and coeur-de-rai band. Above the charming tied ribbon is the most impressive urn of prosperity with fine acanthus leaves and draped in finely detailed swaging berried laurel garlands. All original gilt throughout.
