A stunning and extremely high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period Sèvres porcelain and ormolu lidded urn signed Sèvres. The cobalt blue urn is raised by an exceptional square ormolu base with beautiful scalloped shaped sides displaying a most decorative movement and adorned with wonderful foliate designs. The cobalt blue porcelain socle shaped pedestal support displays charming intricately detailed hand painted gilt foliate designs with tied ribbons and flowing garlands above a superb richly chased wrap around berried laurel ormolu band. The elegantly shaped body is encased by beautiful ormolu leaves at the base and displays additional exceptional gilt accents of luxuriant scrolled foliate designs, swaging laurel garlands, and charming musical instruments. Impressive scrolled ormolu handles of richly chased acanthus leaves lead up each side in an outstanding satin and burnished finish centering the pierced rim with a fine foliate band. The removable lid also displays lovely and most decorative gilt designs and a striking top blooming flower finial with an intricately detailed berried laurel band and which lifts off to reveal the signature and finished interior.
