An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Biscuit de Sèvres and ormolu clock signed Guyon à Lyon. The clock is raised by fine tapered fluted and foliate ormolu feet below the oval base with an exquisite and extremely decorative wrap around honey comb and rosette designed fitted ormolu band.

The clock above displays an enameled dial with Roman numeral hour markings and Arabic minute markings with pierced hands framed within a lovely mottled ormolu bezel. Above is a beautiful maiden draped in a wonderful flowing dress seated on a rock holding a mirror in her hand with a charming finely detailed lamb at her feet and intricate blooming flowers at the side.
