A stunning and most impressive French 19th century Louis XVI st. Biscuit de Sèvres porcelain and ormolu urn/vase. The urn is raised by a square ormolu base with concave corners and a fine wrap around mottled band. The socle shaped pedestal support displays a delicate fluted design with lovely wrap around foliate and twisted ribbon bands. The elegantly shaped body displays a fine reeded design with a wrap around fluted mottled ormolu band at the center with striking richly chased mounts of beautiful maidens and scrolled foliate handles at each side. The body also displays intricately detailed personages dressed in classical attire each holding hands and musical instruments below the mottled reeded ormolu rim. Also finished on the inside.
