An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Breccia Corallina marble and ormolu lidded urn. The urn is raised by a square ormolu base with rounded cut corners. Above is the Breccia Corallina urn with its circular mottled socle. The urn is embellished by a central pierced ormolu band with an intertwined fluted ribbon amidst laurel branches. On each sides is a handsome ormolu mount of a fierce lion's head, below the concave rim. The rim is designed with an ormolu border with acanthus leaves, all below the ormolu acorn finial.
