A stunning and extremely high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Brèche Violette marble and ormolu candelabra lamp. The lamp is raised by a fine circular ormolu base with a tied fluted wrap around band and a socle shaped pedestal with beautiful foliate and fluted designs. To each side are charming intricately detailed cherubs draped in lovely flowing garments with their hands extended upwards. A most decorative foliate design encases the elegantly shaped body while striking richly chased swaging berried laurel garlands extend along the front and back and are tied to beautiful female masks at each side. The mottled reeded top cap displays a lovely gadroon and fish scale design with six scrolled arms above, each adorned with large acanthus leaves and floral foliate candlecups centering the foliate tapered fluted support.
