An extremely elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Brèche Violette marble and ormolu pedestal column. The column is raised by a square base with fine cut corners and a most decorative stepped mottled border. The square tapered central support also displays cut corners with fitted beaded ormolu fillets and a beautiful richly chased floral mount with a charming tied ribbon. The square top display tier also showcases a fine mottled border and an intricately detailed front ormolu mount. Lovely pierced foliate movements, an eternal flame and a quiver and bow center the front of the top display tier.

Finished on all sides.
