An impressive and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. burl Walnut, ormolu, and Sarrancolin marble buffet. The two door two drawer buffet is raised by elegant circular tapered legs with fine mottled and foliate fitted ormolu sabots and mottled top caps. Above the straight frieze are the two doors each with fine foliate ormolu keyhole escutcheons and showcasing the stunning burl Walnut wood grain with most decorative finely inlaid fillets with scrolled designs at the top corners. Separating the two doors is a central panel decorated in a similar manner with a striking richly chased foliate reserve with fine swaging berried laurel garlands. Flanking each door at the rounded sides are beautiful finely detailed berried laurel bands and exceptional intricately detailed pierced foliate ormolu corner mounts also decorated with richly chased swaging berried laurel garlands all in a stunning satin and burnished finish. The two drawers also showcase the wonderful wood grain with pierced scrolled foliate ormolu pulls with smooth cabochons, and separated by a central square reserve with a fine wrap around beaded band. Above is the original Sarrancolin marble top with an elegant mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
