A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. mahogany, ormolu and Sarrancolin marble side table. The circular table is raised by slender circular tapered fluted legs with lovely foliate topie shaped sabots and mottled top caps adorned with wrap around berried laurel bands. Above each leg are fine ormolu rosettes flanking charming swaging floral garlands with tied ribbons set on a kingwood background and framed within ebonized fruitwood and tulipwood fillets. A reeded wrap around ormolu band extends along the apron and above, also framing the original Sarrancolin marble. All original gilt throughout.
