A stunning and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. cobalt blue Sévres porcelain and Ormolu vase. This exceptional vase is supported on a circular mottled edge Ormolu base with a pierced foliate decorated upper edge that is fitted to the base of the porcelain body. The mid section of this wonderful vase contains an array of additional pierced Ormolu designs including swaging foliate garlands, lattice patterns, Coeur-de-Rai designs, and a dentil pattern along the top. Above the neck of this piece, the top is tastefully paired with a pierced Ormolu band containing foliate patterns and a fine mottled top edge.
