A striking and most impressive French 19th century Louis XVI st. double framed giltwood mirror. The mirror retains all of its original mirror plates throughout with the central plate framed within a lovely most decorative scalloped Les Oves designs with foliate accents and beautiful large palmettes. The mottled outer frame displays a lovely twisted rope design at the border with beautiful scrolled richly carved acanthus leaves and foliate movements at each corner. The stunning pierced top crown is centered by a charming finely detailed seashell framed with fine gadroon designs and flanked by wonderful intricately detailed blooming flowers.
