A striking French 19th century Louis XVI st. double framed giltwood mirror. The central mirror plate is framed within a beaded border while the exterior mirror plates are framed within a richly carved twisted ribbon designed border with fine foliate accents. At each corner are striking pierced foliate reserves and large acanthus leaves. The most elegant and wonderfully executed top crown displays two charming and detailed cherubs holding and pulling a richly carved swaging foliate garland centering the large pierced seashell reserve. All original gilt and mirror plates.
