An attractive and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Fleur de Pêcher marble and Ormolu console. This impressive wall mounted console is supported on a mottled marble base and raised by two tapered backplates with recessed panels and a central 'S' scrolled leg. The lovely central scrolling leg is tastefully decorated with an Ormolu foliate mount at the plinth and capital with fluted designs on the body. The scalloped shaped marble top is accented with a fluted band along the bottom and finished with a mottled edge with follows the shape of the console.
