A stunning French 19th century Louis XVI st. Fleur de Pêcher marble and ormolu planter. The planter is raised by fine reeded ormolu feet below a square base with a mottled border. The wrap around circular ormolu band displays a Les Oves pattern with finely detailed foliate designs and encases the most elegant curved tapered central support. Above is a striking ormolu reserve with a beautiful tied band, block rosettes and detailed floral garlands. The grand Fleur de Pêcher bowl above has a sleek elegant shape and a most decorative mottled border.
