A delightful and most decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. Gilt Metal and Velvet box. This wonderful box is raised by four pierced Gilt Metal feet below side panels decorated with foliate scrolls, clovers and diamonds. A large scale foliate band decorates the mid section of the box and displays a uniquely shaped locking mechanism. The stunning lid continues the scrolling foliate and clover designs on an intricate lattice background with corner reserves displaying a diamond, heart, club and spade. Atop the lid is a Gilt Metal handle with a rope twist detail which aids in raising lid to showcase the purple velvet lined interior.
