A striking French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and Brèche d'Alep marble console. The freestanding console is raised by handsome hoof feet below elegant lightly scrolled legs. Each leg is adorned with large acanthus leaves, charming richly chased swaging floral garlands and is connected by a beautiful stretcher with a concave front and sides. The stretcher displays fine beaded bands with a most decorative carved interlocking band and is centered by a striking reeded urn. Above each leg are elegant laurel wreaths with a fine smooth cabochon, while the pierced apron displays stunning intricately carved foliate rinceau shaped scrolls with a central acanthus leaf below a Les Oves band. Above is the original thick Brèche d'Alep marble top with a fine mottled border.
