A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and Brèche Verte marble center table. The rectangular table is raised by beautiful lightly tapered circular fluted legs with fine topie shaped feet, block reserves, and lovely acanthus leaf top caps. Each leg is connected by a delicate scalloped shaped stretcher with a mottled border and fine central foliate finial. Above each leg are finely detailed block rosettes flanking the straight frieze decorated with charming foliate bands and striking richly carved swaging berried laurel garlands and centered by a superb berried laurel wreath tied with a ribbon. Above is the original Brèche Verte marble top with wonderfully executed and uniquely squared corners masterfully fitted within a fine mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
