An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and Brèche Médicis circular center table. The table is raised by fine topie shaped feet below richly carved block rosettes and circular tapered reeded legs. Each leg displays a tied ribbon design, and acanthus leaf carvings and are connected by a beautiful pierced X shaped stretcher with a central acanthus leaf finial. At the frieze are fine tied swaging berried laurel garlands centered by carved block rosettes. Above is the original circular Brèche Médicis marble top with a mottled border. All original gilt.
