A spectacular and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Giltwood and Calacatta marble console. The stunning demi lune shaped console is raised by fluted and tapered cylindrical legs with berried oak leaf decorations above the feet and at the top of each leg. The apron displays oak leaf and pearled garland reserves above each leg, while being flanked richly detailed pierced foliate scrolls with rose blooms. The demi-lune Calacatta marble top follows the shape of the console and displays an ogee edge.
