An exquisite French 19th century Louis XVI st. Giltwood and etched mirror. The double framed oval original central beveled mirror plate is framed within a delicate beaded border. The original outer decorative mirror panels have intricate central etched floral designs. These panels are accented by finely carved scrolled pendant reserves. The outer frame displays a striking and most decorative carved dentil and acanthus leaf pattern. The impressive top crown has rich pierced carvings and foliate movements and is centered by a wonderful carved seashell reserve. The bottom has a similar design with pierced scrolls and floral decorations centered around an additional carved seashell.
