A stunning and extremely decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and faux painted Porphyry center table. The table is raised by elegant circular tapered fluted legs with fine ball feet, richly carved acanthus leaves and beautiful Ionic capitals adorned with finely detailed swaging floral garlands. Above each leg are impressive block rosettes flanking the pierced intricately detailed apron with a spectacular floral and foliate design framed within beaded and Les Oves designed borders. Above is the wonderfully executed faux painted Porphyry top with a most decorative mottled border.
