A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and Fleur de Pêcher marble console. The freestanding console is raised by fine square tapered fluted legs with beautiful foliate feet. Each leg is connected by a striking stretcher with a decorative carved Les Oves pattern and an impressive central urn, amidst beautiful berried laurel garlands. The apron displays an exceptional carved interlocking design with a finely detailed central rosette, accented with richly carved swaging berried laurel garlands. Above is the original Fleur de Pêcher marble top with a fine mottled border. With all original gilt throughout.
