An exceptional French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and marble wall mounted console. The console is raised by handsome paw feet below elegantly scrolled legs adorned with large acanthus leaves. The legs are attached by a most impressive stretcher with a central urn, lovely flowers and richly carved swaging floral garlands. Above each leg are carved block rosettes while a fine interlocking pattern extends along the front and side. At the center of the frieze is an elegant tied ribbon with intricately carved swaging floral garlands. Above is the original Grand Antico marble top with a fine mottled border.
