A unique and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and Vert de Patricia marble pedestal column. The pedestal is raised by three fine bun feet below the triangular shaped base with concave sides, cut corners and a mottled central finial with a decorative acanthus leaf and fluted design.

The three supports display superb hoof feet below Greek key designs and richly carved acanthus leaves. The supports are connected by a central fluted stretcher and display lovely finely detailed swaging berried laurel garlands and fine floral rosettes. Above each leg are striking block rosettes flanking wrap around fitted berried laurel and beaded bands at the circular mottled top. Above is the original fitted Vert de Patricia marble top.

Top Diameter: 12.25"
