An extremely elegant small scale French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and white Carrara marble freestanding console. The console is raised by fine baluster shaped supports below richly carved block rosettes. The circular fluted tapered legs are connected by a most attractive stretcher with concave sides, a striking central urn with the eternal flame and delicate interlocking patterns. The frieze is centered by a lovely central reserve with a smooth cabochon flanked by a fine beaded design and richly carved block rosettes. Above it the original white Carrara marble top with a fine mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
