A stunning French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood center table with the original marble top. The table is raised by elegant square tapered legs with richly carved block rosettes, scrolled capitals and fine swaging berried laurel garlands. The legs are joined by an attractive X shaped stretcher with a richly carved pierced floral design, a beaded border and a decorative central urn. The frieze is exquisitely carved, displaying a fine central reserve flanked by sensational pierced Vitruvian scrolls. Above is the original Fleur de Pêcher marble top. All original gilt.
