An elegant and most decorative French 19th Century Louis XVI st. Giltwood chandelier. This charming six arm circular chandelier displays a bottom berried finial below a reeded central band decorated by berried laurel garlands. The richly decorated 'S' scrolled arms protrude out of the central band decorated by fanciful acanthus leaves and ending with circular rosettes on each side. Each candle cup showcases foliate designs surrounded by a beaded band. Draping above are berried laurel swaging garlands above the spiral fluted fut which leads to a carved Giltwood flame. All original gilt throughout.
