A stunning and large scale French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood console and mirror. The console is raised on elegant bun feet below large acanthus leaves and reeded legs leading up to mottled and foliate reserves below the top ionic capitals. The legs are joined by a lovely curved stretcher centered by a wonderful and intricately carved urn with scrolled handles and foliate movements. The impressive frieze displays floral designs accented with block rosettes and is centered by a scrolled seashell designed element with a smooth central cabochon. The stunning Incarnat Turquin marble top is fitted into the console and surrounded by a lovely mottle border. The original mirror showcases an elaborately carved floral border with beaded trim. The arched top crown is centered by a lovely family crest shaped reserve and is flanked by intricately details block corners with central rosettes. All original gilt and mirror plate.
