A spectacular and most unusual French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood double frame mirror with all original gilt and mirror plates. The impressive mirror is surrounded by a large finely etched beveled mirror frame with an exquisite acorn leaf carved border. At the center is a very attractive oval mirror with a rich and thick berried laurel garland curved frame. The background has a sensational lattice design with carved rosettes. At the top is a scalloped carved wall bracket with a handsome 's' scrolling acanthus leaf designed support.
