A beautiful French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood double framed mirror.

The original central beveled mirror plate which follows the shape of the mirror is framed within a fine carved and beaded border. Leading out are the original and most decorative, finely etched mirror plates with a twisted ribbon border. At the base are scrolled acanthus leaves while each corner displays striking pierced designs. The charming and richly carved top crown displays a large central fleur de lys with detailed flowers and two lovebirds. All original gilt throughout.
