A striking and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood, ebonized fruitwood and leather center table. The rectangular table is raised by elegant circular fluted tapered legs with fine topie shaped feet and beautiful finely carved block rosette reserves, and exceptional berried laurel band top caps. The legs are connected by a remarkable stretcher with a delicate mottled border, elegant concave sides, and a superb reeded central urn with an eternal flame finial. Above each leg are additional finely carved block rosettes flanking the straight apron with stunning Vitruvian scrolls centering a beautiful recessed carved reserve with wheat sprigs tied with a charming bow. Above is a fitted gold tooled leather top framed within an elegant ebonized fruitwood border.
