A charming and most decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood mirror. The horizontal oblong shaped mirror retains its original beveled mirror plate framed in an impressive and most decorative mottled egg and dart designed border. At the base is a beautiful pierced richly chased palmette seashell reserve flanked by elegant acanthus leaves and blooming flowers. Above is the superb pierced top crown with a central finely detailed rose amidst lovely scrolled foliate movements with charming winged putti at each side seemingly holding the top crown and pulling delicate floral garlands.
