A beautiful and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood mirror. The large scale mirror retains its original mirror plate framed within a beautiful wrap around twisted ribbon band. The mirror is raised by elegant acanthus leaf feet below fine block rosettes with a striking richly carved central seashell reserve and a smooth cabochon flanked by charming berried laurel branches. Leading up the sides are delicate scrolled elements with finely detailed blooming flowers and leaves set on an interlocking wrap around band. The impressive pierced top crown is centered by a beautiful medallion of Diana the huntress with her hair tied in an updo with her quiver over her shoulder framed within the interlocking band as the frame. The medallion displays a charming tied ribbon above and is flanked by remarkable richly carved berried laurel branches with lovely blooming flowers at each side. All original gilt throughout.
