A wonderful and large scale French 19th century Louis XVI st. Giltwood mirror. This impressive oval mirror displays an inner egg and dart and beaded design surrounding the original mirror plate. At the bottom is a central reserve of a Fleur de Lys flanked by foliate sprays and pierced floral branches. The two sides are decorated by charming seated cherubs on draped ledges while glancing at each other. At the top is a very fanciful reserve with a central female mask with feather like top decorations. Flanking the mask are large scrolled acanthus leaves amidst richly detailed floral pierced flowing branches.
